THE HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN STORYTELLING PROGRAM
NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

STORYTELLING SINCE 1956

Each summer on Saturday morning since 1956, New Yorkers of all ages have listened to Andersen tales and other stories, folktales, and fairytales from around the world told by a group of brilliant storytellers at the Hans Christian Andersen Statue in Central Park. This landmark New York event has remained free. In today's world, the engagement, benefits, and magical delight of listening to a story are ever more important.

This program is funded by the Hans Christian Andersen Story Telling Center, Inc. ("HCASTC") which also sponsors special outreach programs at public schools in New York City, where children are taught the art of storytelling. To keep these traditions going, we need your help!

HCASTC is a not-for-profit corporation that depends on contributions from the public. It is approved by the IRS as a 501(c)(3) tax exempt corporation, and contributions are tax deductible. All of the directors and officers of HCASTC are unpaid volunteers, but our professional story tellers and monitors are compensated.
